EXCELSIOR

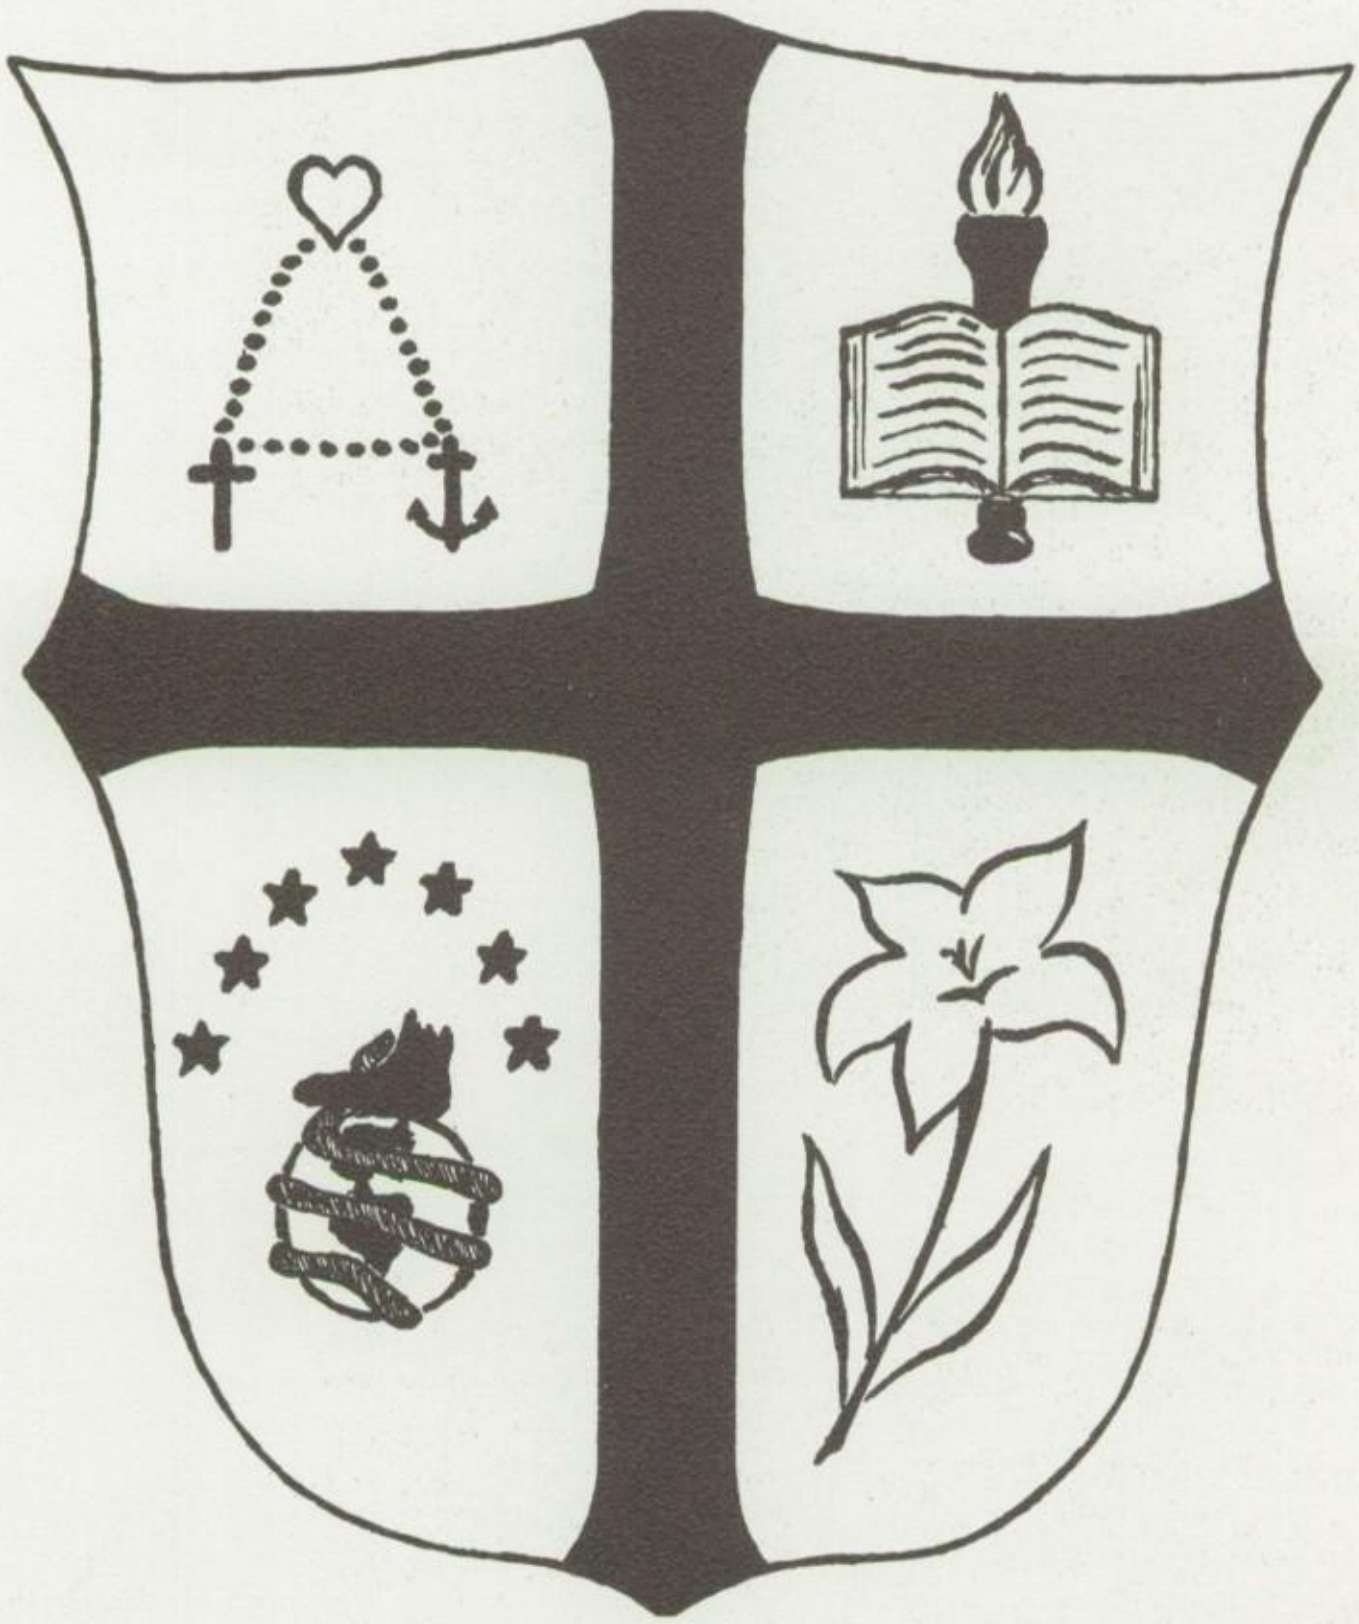
1967



Lebanon Catholic High School
Lebanon, Pennsylvania

This is the third year that the name "Excelsior" has appeared on the cover of Lebanon Catholic High School's yearbook. The title is the same, but the contents and many of the faces are new; yet it represents the same thing--a year in the life of the school's students. It symbolizes newness, excitement, and warm friendly memories.

To the Freshmen, it was a year of beginnings. Classes, friends, people and atmosphere were all new. It was a year of amazement, anxiety and hope--a year not soon to be forgotten.

To the Sophomores, the year represented achievement. They had reached the midway point. The hardest, yet most memorable years, lay ahead.

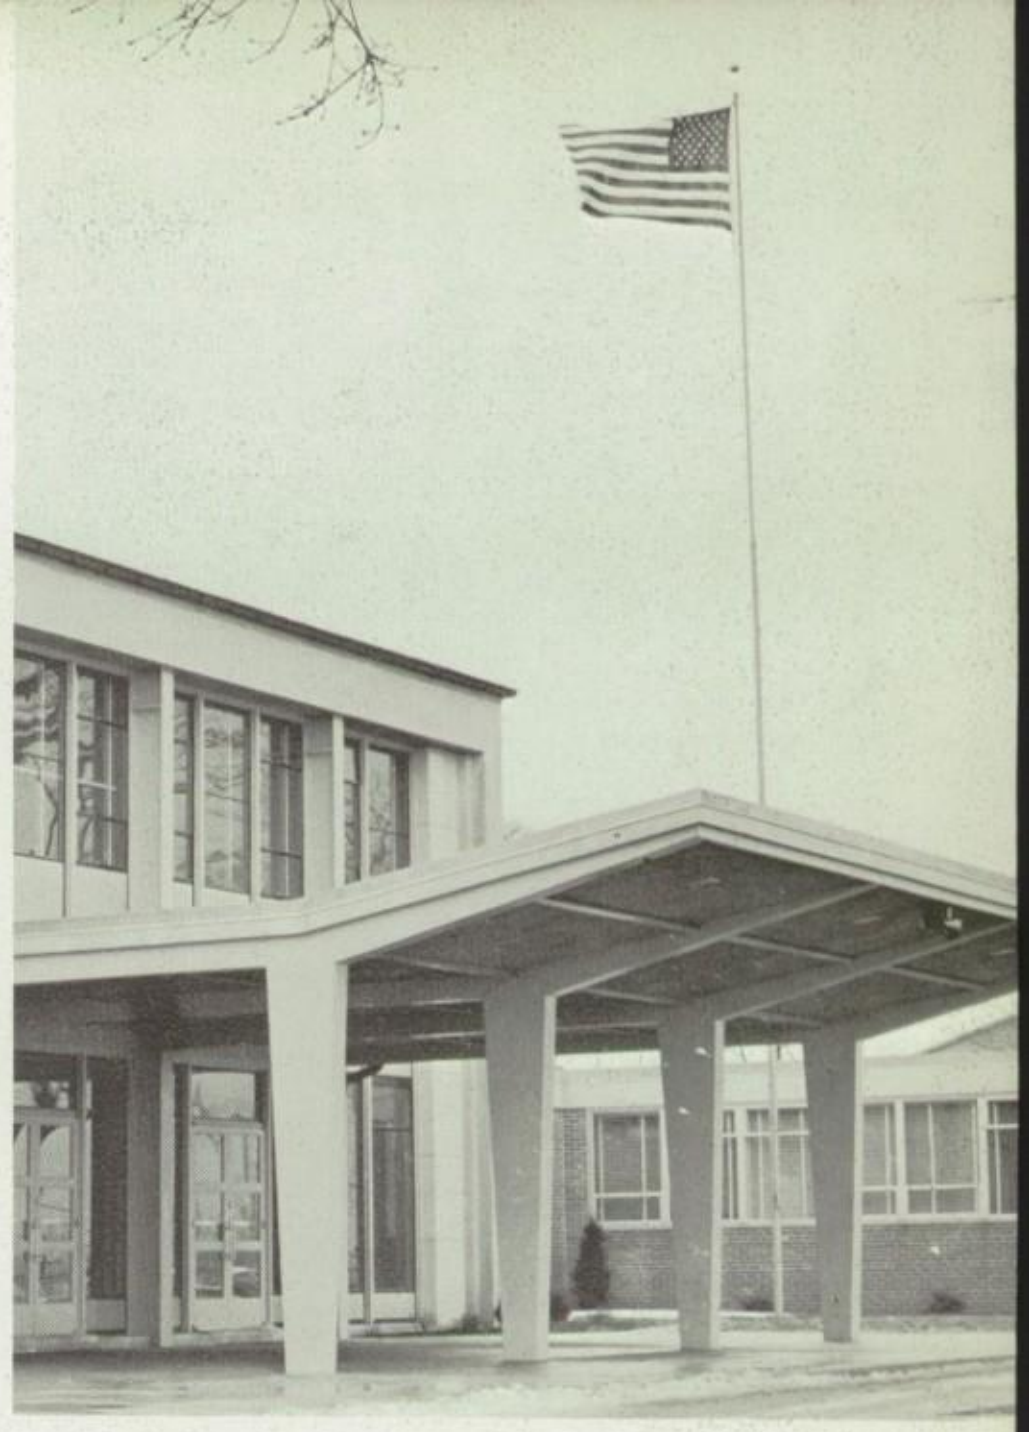
To the Juniors, it was a very eventful and important year. They received their priceless rings, attended the prom, and made important decisions about their future. They have been tested and retested. Oh! For Peace!

To the Seniors, it was a year of years. Yet, as the Seniors' completion is also a commencement, the future looms before them--beckoning, fruitful, and full of hope.

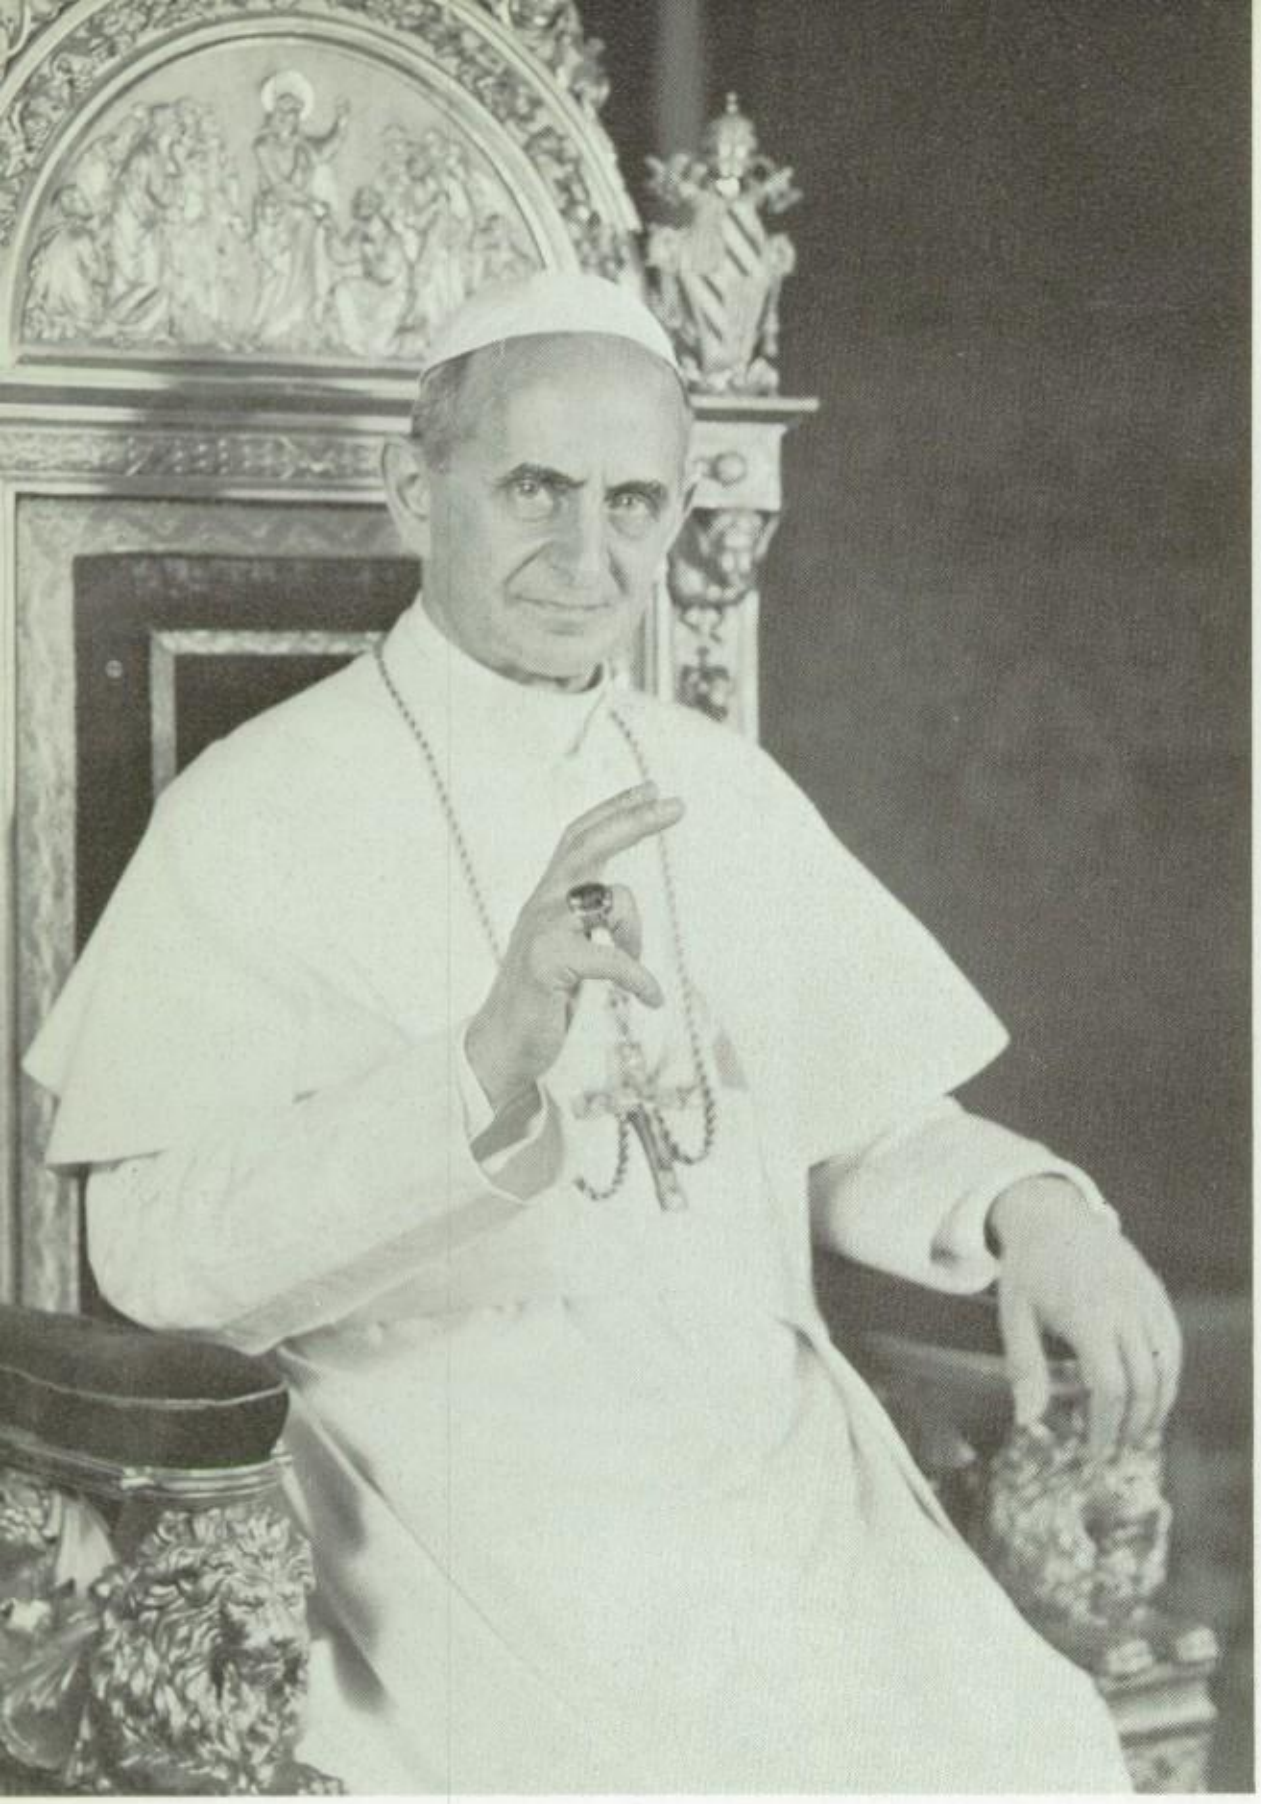
Let us hope that each of us can look back and say, "IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR." Let us also hope that it will bring back to us memories that can never be extinguished or lessened in meaning, and that Lebanon Catholic will always be proud of us.

A Place to Remember

Wonderland by night
Lebanon Catholic at twilight.



Remember . . . waiting for that late, always late, school bus.



Pope Paul VI, Vicar of Christ

Pope Paul VI stands as the untiring shepherd of the world's millions of Catholics. Under his inspiring supervision Catholicism flourishes, daily yielding the wholesome fruit of His relentless labors. His main goal, that there be but one flock and one shepherd, is an inspiration to all youth. As time goes on and as changes take place all over the world, Pope Paul has been striving to modernize and activate the practice in the Church. In the tasks assigned to his universal position, Pope Paul fulfills the true meaning of the words, "Upon this rock, I will build my Church."

Administration

Bishop of Harrisburg, D.D., J.C.D.

Bishop Leech, the Shepherd of Christ's flock in the Harrisburg diocese, shows an unequalled zeal for every phase of our high school life. Through his support of Catholic schools, he has given us the tools and materials with which to build for the future. His concern for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the students at Lebanon Catholic has become a tradition. The Bishop has helped to point the way to the fulfillment of Christian ideals and stands as a beacon to guide us in our path through life. We are happy to be members of his flock, and pray that he will be blessed with many more years in God's service.

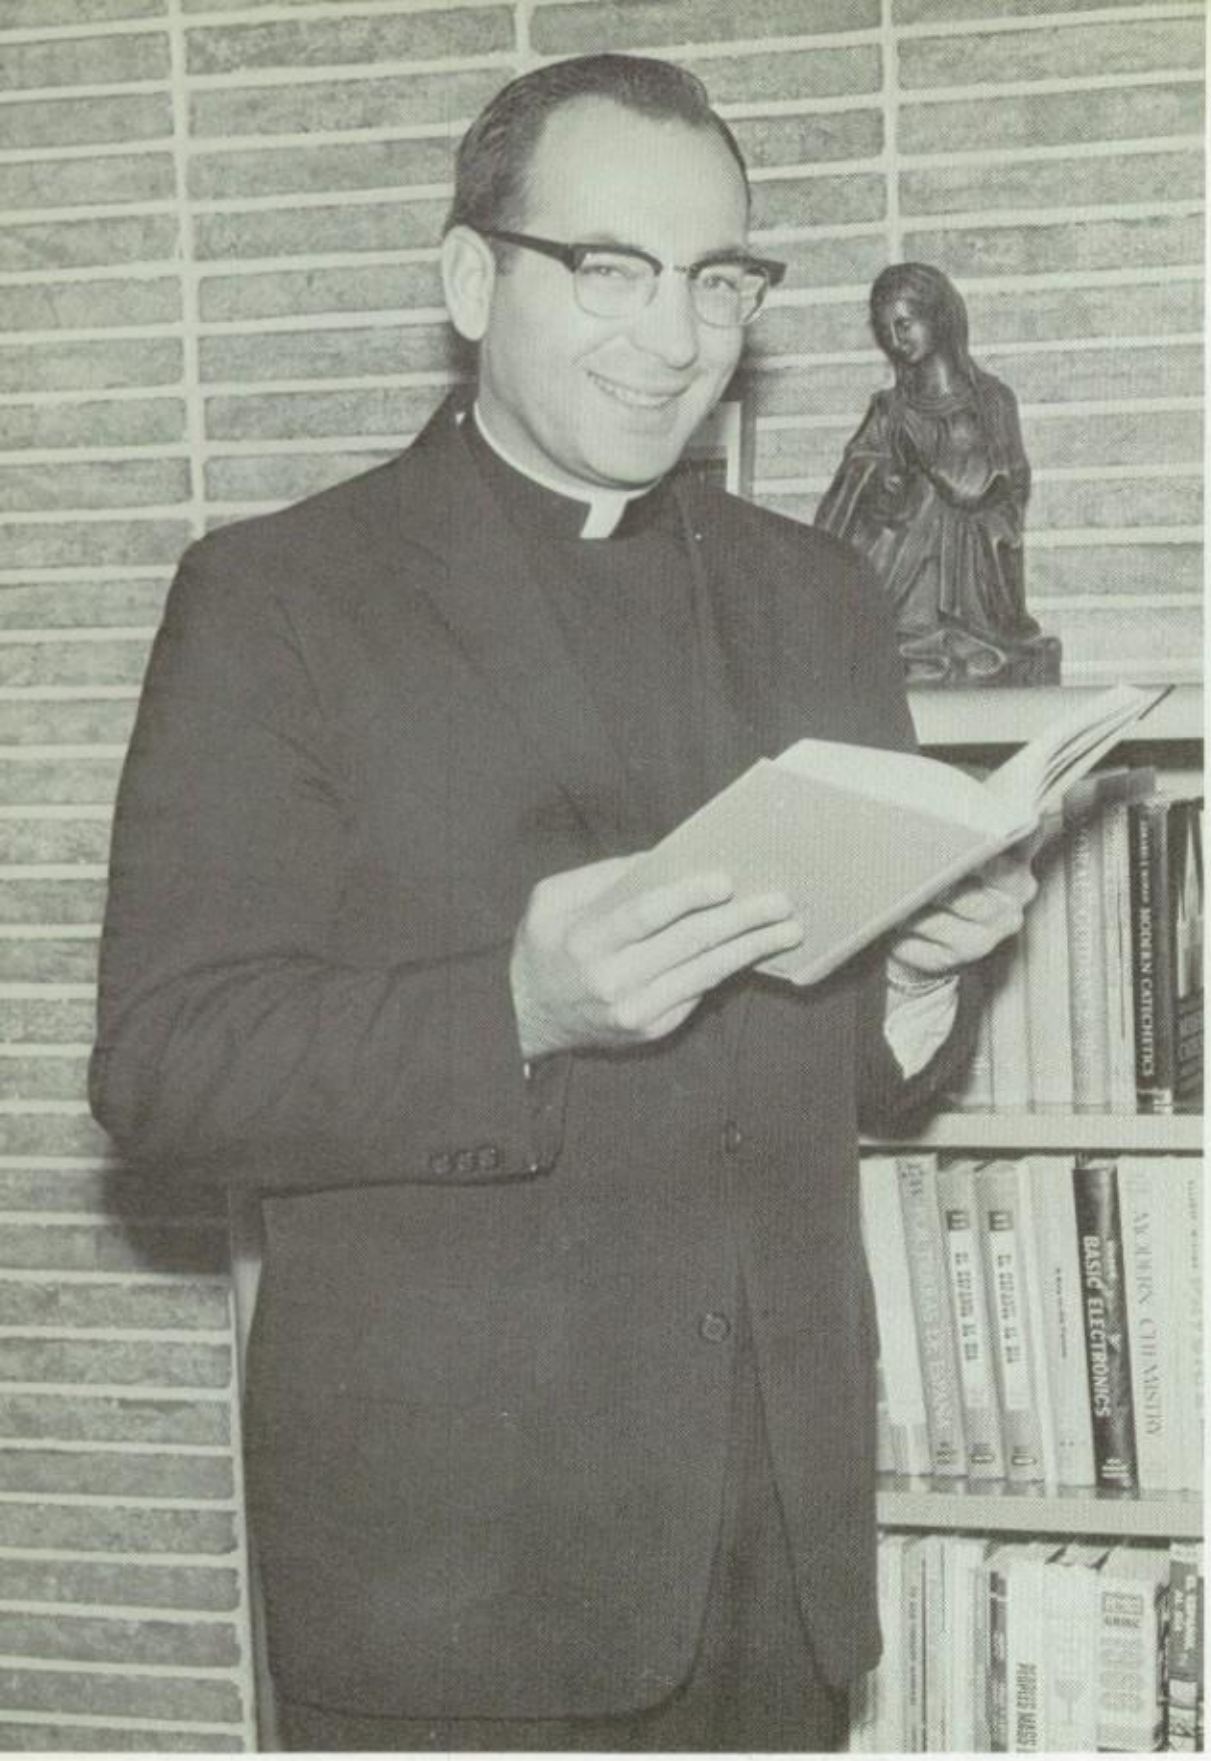
People

We, the class of 1967, wish to express our gratitude to the Reverend Lawrence R. Overbaugh, our principal, for the help, understanding and guidance he has given us during our fruitful years at Lebanon Catholic High School. His true interest and deep sincerity has earned the respect and admiration of all the students at Lebanon Catholic High School.



Reverend Lawrence R. Overbaugh
Principal, Lebanon Catholic High School

Hard-working Father Overbaugh deeply engrossed in the many facets of high school administrative work, shows his approval.

Performing his priestly duty, Father Overbaugh offers Mass for the benefit of the students and faculty at Lebanon Catholic High School.

to Remember

Mother Louis Mary, who will be departing from Lebanon Catholic this year, will always be remembered and respected by us, the class of 1967. We recognize her as the dynamo which keeps the wheels of our educational system turning. Stimulated by her, we learn to cherish duty, and to maintain the courage of our convictions. We are animated by her concern for us, and by her enthusiastic interest in our welfare. She leads us ever onward with the careful eye of wisdom and experience. We pray that this stalwart courier of God will receive bountifully the reward of His blessings that she has merited.

Mother Louis Mary S.S.J.
Prefect of Studies, Department Coordinator

Reverend Sylvan P. Capitani
Spiritual Director, Debate Moderator

Father Capitani, our chaplain, forms an additional link in the chain which binds our educational system. With the utmost perseverance and vigilance, he pursues the tremendous task of attending to our spiritual needs. His pleasing personality, his youthful vigor, and his wholehearted interest in youth and their activities, has won the confidence of the students at Lebanon Catholic High School.

Our Guiding Lights

With sincere interest and enthusiasm our Guidance Counselors have guided us on our road to the future. Through their advice and assistance, they have done all in their power to point out a sure way, not only to material success, but also to an eternity with God.

Time passes, traveling down the lane, but memories remain, all days.
The friends made here, the knowledge gained here,
The teachers who've led us toward paths of the truth.

School spirit, increased since freshman year, has filled us with Just pride these years. The L.C.H. teams showed our cheer,
Have helped to keep us near, The Class of '67 will thus be true.

Time's passing, we watch with deep regret, to see it leave so soon, and yet, We look up to see; all our dreams, the opportunities,
To use the knowledge we have gained from our school.

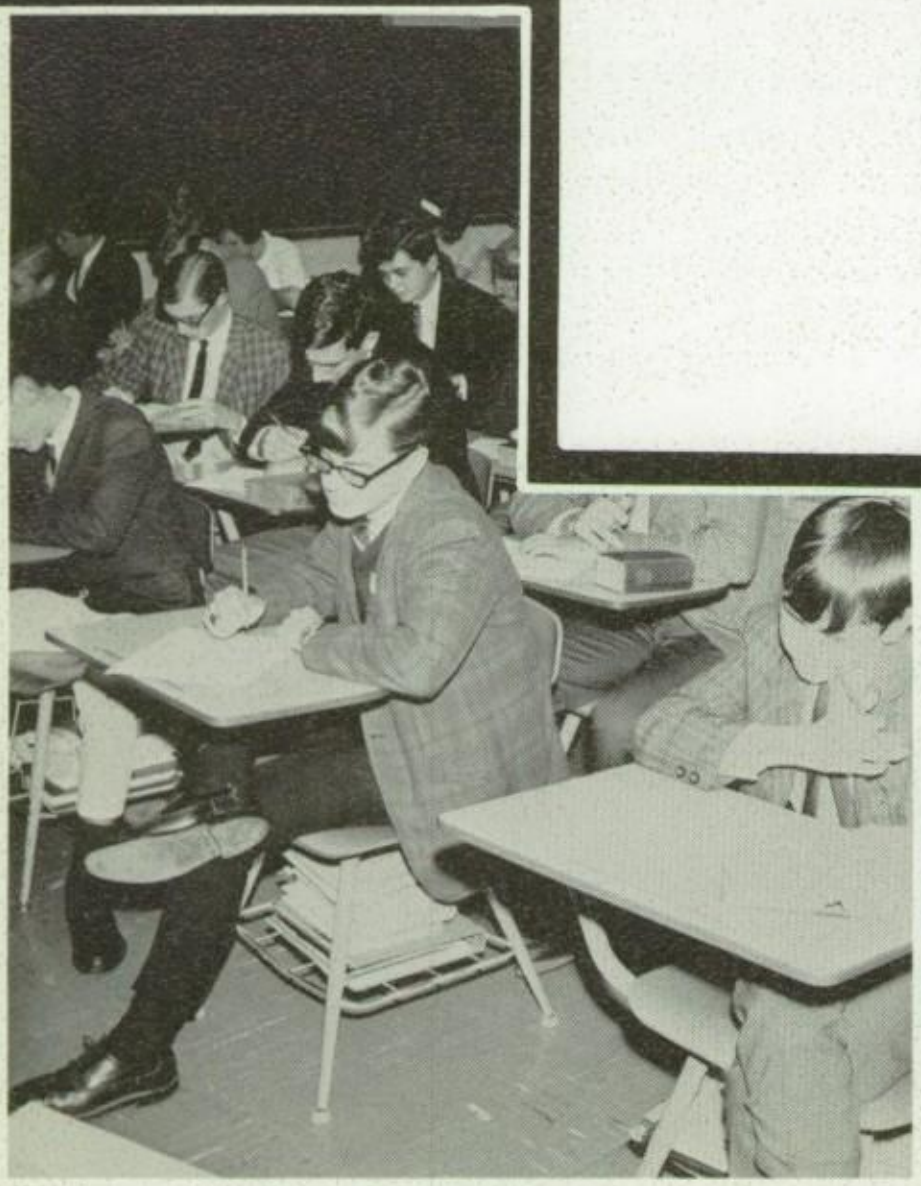
STUDIES



Sons of Hear Holy

What theological problem is Father Capitani pondering, while his junior religion class is working diligently on a project?

Under the careful guidance of Sister Adrian, Sophomores learn the fundamentals of Christian Life.

God His Word

Sister M. Jerome SS .C.M. checks over a student's work in a Freshman Religion Class. Don't look so glum, Sister, it can't be that bad!

Addie O'Donnell looks very much interested in her Religion book. I wonder why! Sister St. Mark, S.S.J. is supervising this group of Seniors.

The departure of Sister Frances Joanna S.S.J. early this year was met with mixed emotions by everyone. L.C.H.S. has lost a good friend and dedicated worker. But on the other hand, we would like to welcome Sister St. Mark S.S.J. to L.C.H.S., and we hope that she enjoys the atmosphere of our school. We know that the students will grow under Sister's guidance and find a new friend at L.C.H.S.

Father McLernon shows a movie on "Love and Marriage" to a group of Seniors in the Marriage Course. Fathers Haviland and McLernon come once a week to instruct Seniors in the basics of a Christian Marriage.

Ogrecheck . . . Ogurkirk . . . Ogokak . . . next bird! A familiar ritual for the Senior English class. Sister Saint James versus Albert Ogurcak.

These Are the Times That Try Men's Souls

"Is this really necessary?" think the Juniors as they read the Introduction to Shakespeare to Goldsmith.

"To Pass Or Not To Pass" is the question asked by all good Sophomore English scholars.

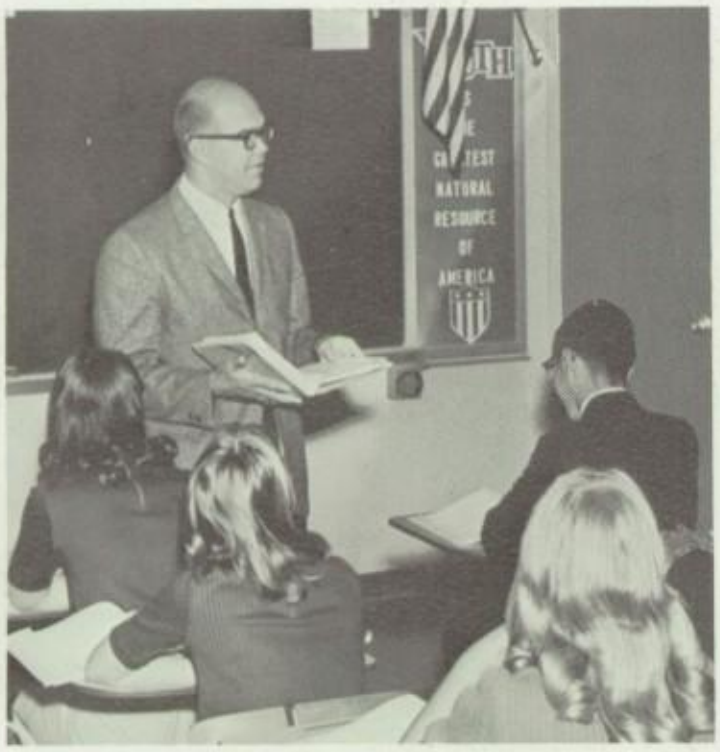
"The quality of mercy is not strained . . ." especially in this Freshman English class.

Sister Jerome is drilling the Sophomore Great Issues class in the problems of the United States.

The Sophomore Government class is attentive as Mr. Loeper quizzes them on the workings of Congress.

Dave Simpson introduces the controversial issues of the Minimum Wage to the Senior POD class.

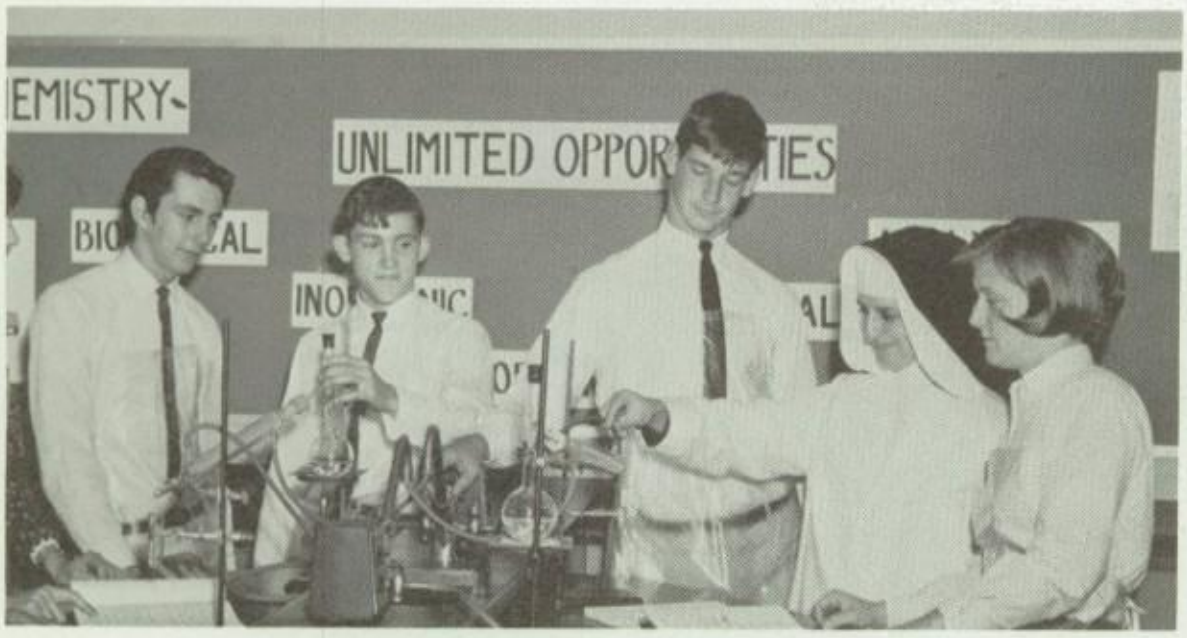
History Brings the Past to Life



The Freshmen, under Mr. Starr's instruction, are taught to appreciate the Cultures of the World.

Young Mr. Loeper, (Paul Kirsch), points out Lebanon to his fellow Juniors. American History is a highlight of Junior year.

The Spirit of Man Searches . . .

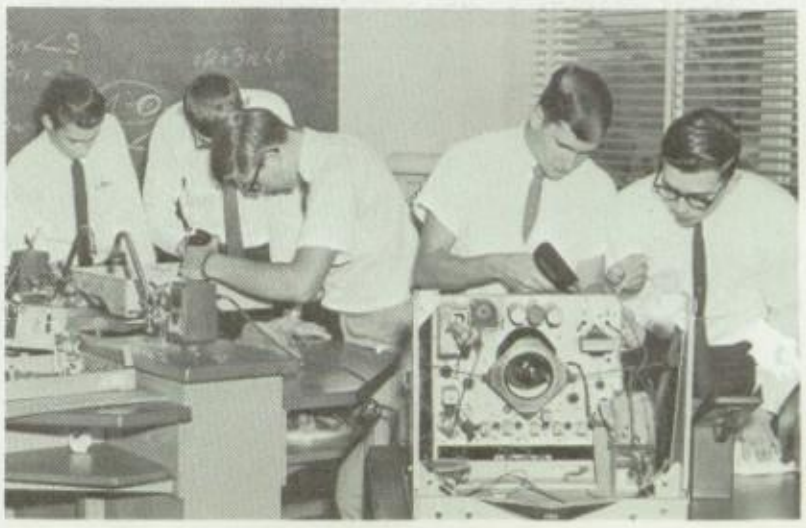


Sister Joan Marie skillfully demonstrates the process of distillation to her Junior Chemistry Class. Wonder what she's distilling?

Joel Keefer is giving the measurements for a Physics problem. Do you approve, Sister Lucilla?

$E = mc^2$—Einstein's Theory of Relativity is one of the problems the Freshmen must learn to cope with in General Science.

Sophomore Biology students learn to appreciate the microscopic life, with the help of Sister M. Magdalene.



In the process of reassembling this complexity, the Senior boys practice the basics of Electronics.

. . . for a Common Bond

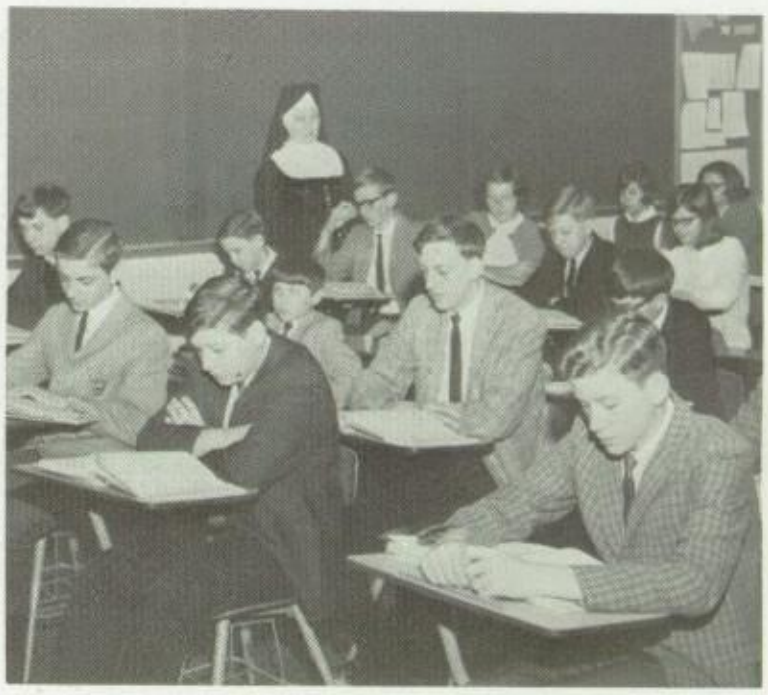
"Deutschland Uber Alles"--Miss Braas, the moderator, explains. Careful attention is given by John Chrin, President; Judith Keefer, Vice-President; Charles Neubauer, Secretary; James Gabel, Treasurer.

"El Circulo Español"-- "To want is to be able" is the motto of this year's Spanish Club. President, Marino Gaspari; Secretary, Suzanne Uhrich.

The Wonders of Math

"Look I'm improving! This time I got two right out of fifteen!" Sister Mary Helen merely smiles at her Senior Math 4 group.

The Junior Algebra II class heroically struggles under the inspiration of Sister Mary Helen and her two Senior supporters Judy Millovich and Toni Tacca.



The Freshman Algebra I class is working hard to try to understand the new approach to math.

"So what's your angle?" asks the Sophomore Geometry class.

These budding young artists are part of the Freshman Art Class under the supervision of Mr. Karli.

The Finer Arts

Mr. Thomas E. Mann strikes a familiar pose. Mr. Mann, the band director, is also the Sophomore Music Appreciation instructor.

"Be precise" is the byword for the Junior Mechanical Drawing class. Mr. Karli is there to insure this precision.

The of

Let's not be greedy about this! There's enough for everyone in the Freshman Home Ec. class.

"Through the cloth, not the hand!," exclaims Miss Prevterra to her Sophomore Home Ec. Students.

"If you want to chase girls, you've got to be healthy", advises Mr. Starr to the Junior boys Health Class.

"You mean there's no stork?" Kathy Kelly expresses her disbelief at this statement made in Family Living Class during a discussion.

Development Attitudes

Mrs. Elizabeth Sheetz instructs these Junior girls in the intricacies of personal hygiene and health.

Is it a bird? Is it a plane? NO! It's a Junior boy jumping for a volleyball! Nice try, fella!

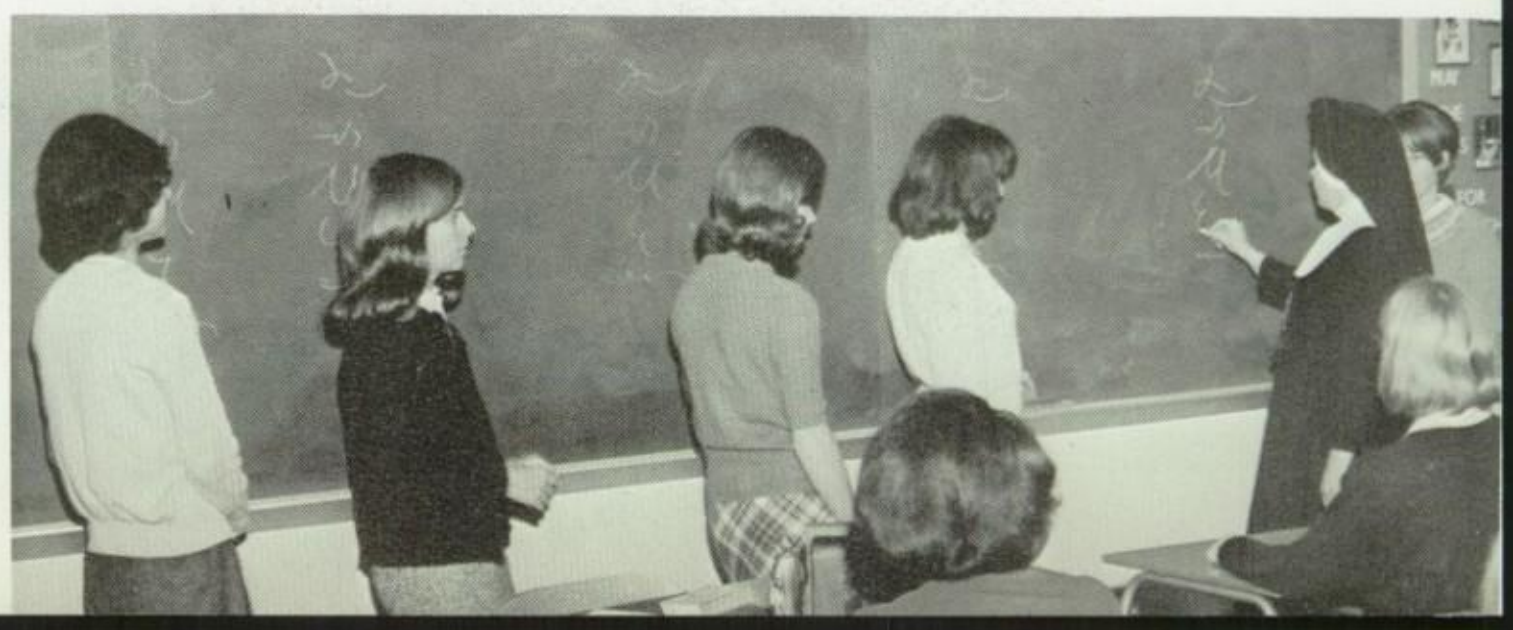
It's another Wilt Chamberlain . . . of the female set! It's actually an outstanding performance by Peggy Zweier in the Junior gym class.

The principles of Christian Family Living are explained to Joan Millot by Miss Previtera. In this course for Seniors, the 'Art of Loving' is taught.

Sister Margaret Alphonsus encourages Juniors to reach their goal-typing perfection.

Business . . .

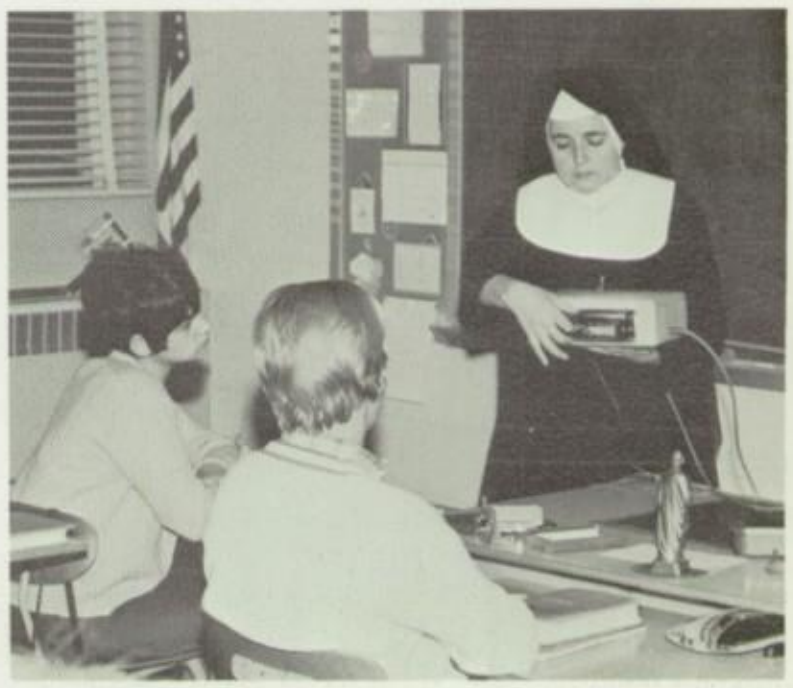
Mr. Danz instructs the Seniors how to use their economic goods wisely in the Consumer Ec. class.



"Faculty, notification, dependable, purpose, years ago" Sister Margaret Alphonsus EXPLAINS the mistakes at the board to her Steno I class.

"Keep your eyes on the copy!" is the battle cry of the Senior Personal Typing class.

As Usual



"Push this button here, turn a knob there, and presto! . . . instant dictation!"

Sister Margaret Alphonsus explains the "T" account to her Senior Bookkeeping class. Debits on the left, credits on the right.

Those In-Times

"Something good" . . . that started in a classroom. Sister M. Celestine and Bernadette Van der Heijden are having a tete-à-tête after a day of Vocation lectures.

"Let's see . . . if I put some mud in here, a plant in there, then a piece of carrot just for good luck . . . "Miss Previtera is beautifying the Home Ec. room after three months of summer heat wiped out the last crop of plants.

Rabbi Simckes is explaining the "Torah" in a special assembly for the Freshman World Culture class.

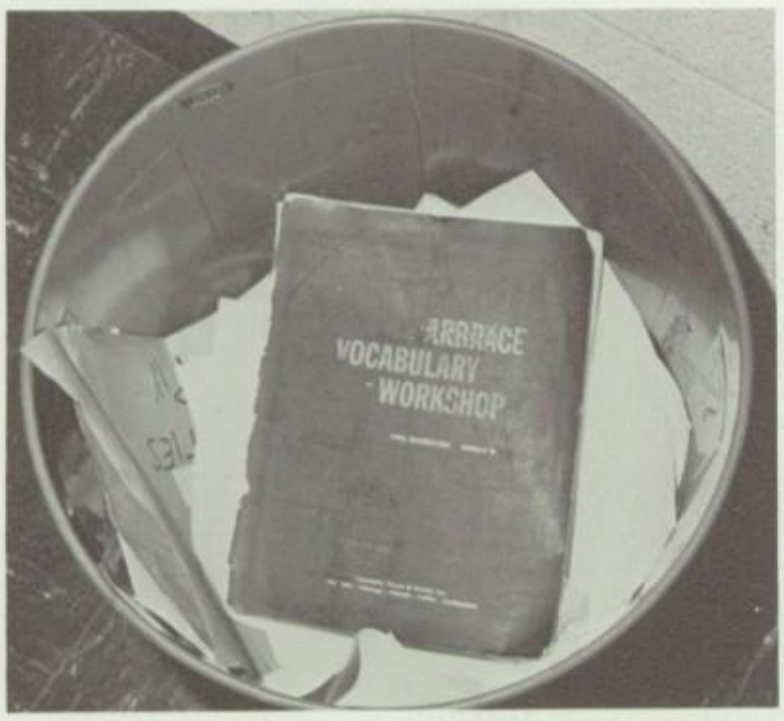
Gym class chorus line.

"Down girl!" Darlene Nash seems to be restraining someone. Could it be Addie O'Donnell?



What's this? A Harbrace Vocabulary Workshop book in a waste can? Is this a fitting end?

Addie O'Donnell is passing the cup of Friendship to Louise Willman with the words "I drink to you for the love of Saint John". This ceremony called an "Agape" is one of the many interesting events in the Senior Family Living class.

Hear, O Lord

Our principal, Father Overbaugh, prepares for the Offeratory of the Mass. The school Mass is one of the many privileges we have as students of Lebanon Catholic High School. The graces we receive from Mass and the reception of Holy Communion, enable us to live our lives as good Christian students in a changing society.

the Sound of My Call

Father Overbaugh gives an inspiring talk to the Class of '67 at the Ring Ceremony.

John Deitz receives his class ring from Father, as Tom Brown assists in the long-awaited distribution of the rings.

Memories Are Made

of This

Homecoming '66

This friendly fellow welcomed the Alumni to the Homecoming Dance.

"Cheer, cheer, for our Blue and White . . ." Gee, they don't make cheerleaders like they used to.

"This Can't Be True" seems to be what Jeanne is thinking as she is crowned 1966 Homecoming Queen by Student Council President, Ed Hickey.

A tribute to our Great Team.

Dianne Edkin congratulates Jeannie with a lovely bouquet of red roses during half-time activities.

Our Queen

The Class of '67 revived the practice of selecting a queen as part of Homecoming activities. Congratulations to the Queen and her Court!

As the half-time festivities begin, Jeanne is just one of the five lovely candidates who await the decision.

The Queen and her court pose radiantly before the start of the Homecoming Dance. They are: Lucille Horney, Susie Tice, Queen Jeannie Schlegel; first runner-up, Betsy Zweier; and Darlene Nash.

Forensics

Throughout the year, the members of the Forensic League, under the direction of Miss Valerie M. Nichols, participated at various schools, in a continuous program of speeches in one of three categories: Declamation, Original Oratory, and Extemporaneous.

Debate

Father Capitani directs the Debate Club, which, during the year, has participated in several rewarding tournaments.

Radio

The Radio Club, with Mr. Connor as moderator, offers an opportunity to receive practical experience in radio announcing to all members.

Hillchatter Staff

The Hillchatter Staff works as an efficient team. As a result of this hard work, the students received for the first time a printed newspaper. Congratulations are extended to the staff, the editors, and especially to Mr. Hubert Connor, without whose supervision there could be no paper.

Excelsior Staff

The entire staff of the Excelsior has worked hard all year to produce a yearbook that will bring back the memories of the '66-'67 school year.

John Macauley, Editor, who quit seven times during the year, really persevered. Why that wry smile? Has he decapitated Antoinette?*

Staff artist, Robert Uffner, and photographer Joel Keefer, work diligently on a few of our many problems.

"Up with photography!", says Mr. William Lau, our school photographer. Mr. Lau, of William's Studio fame, has spent many trying hours at L.C.H.S.

Administration section has a hard job in front of them. Who wants to put the faculty in order? They are Stephanie Stewart, Jean Sullivan, Kate McCarron, Section Head; Betsy Mills, and Sue Ann Maika.

Something is amusing to Mary Ellen Taylor as the Studies section discusses an interesting English class. They are: Mary Ellen Taylor, Mary R. Allwein, Head of the section; John Macauley and Judy Millovich.

Heavens! They're not arguing! The members of the activities are Antoinette Tacca, Joan Millot, Judy Millovich, Judy Keefer, Gloria Pushnik, Mary Ellen Taylor, and Christine Reigle.

The Sports section discuss a recent Beaver victory. They are Robert Uffner, Antoinette Tacca, Bruce Longenecker, Section Head; Christine Reigle, and Joel Keefer.

The Man To

"I may vomit." Mr. Whiteside is apparently nauseated by Doctor Bradley's orders to spend his convalescence in the Stanley household.

"Oh dear, my calf's-foot jelly!" exclaims Mrs. McCutcheon as Mrs. Dexter looks on in horror.

"Dear Mr. Whiteside, I found this holly framed green against the pine trees. . . " Harriet Stanley's ghostly appearance mystifies Mr. Whiteside.

Mr. Whiteside's distinguished luncheon guests: Bruce Longenecker, Charlie Broome, Richard Horney, and Tom Brown.

"Behold Sherry . . . Roach City!" Metz brings Sherry an unusual get-well present.

Mr. Stanley is shocked at Mr. Whiteside's rude attempt to take over his household.

If looks could kill! Maggie suppresses her hostilities, as Lorraine plays up to Bert Jefferson, Maggie's sweetheart.

Mr. Whiteside appears to be quite amused at the problem Banjo has in hand. Miss Preen apparently is not!

"But Mr. Whiteside, you know the jam we're in," say Sandy and June to Mr. Whiteside, as Richard tries to conceal his shock.

Success!

"You'll never guess what I have under this blanket," says Mr. Whiteside to the glamorous Lorraine Sheldon.

"Dust to Dust . . . Banjo!!!"

Radioman, Westcott, directs these angelic choir boys in a Christmas carol to be presented on Mr. Whiteside's radio program.

Behind the Scenes

Mike Harley works diligently to complete the scenery in time for the Play. He is just one of the many members of the stage crew, who under the able direction of Mr. Peter Starr, made the Play come to life with their realistic scenery.

It's surprising what make-up can do! Suzie Tice attempts to make Kathie Thompson presentable for the stage.

"Pretty Boy Bosh" is being dolled up for his theatrical debut. The members of the make-up committee assisting him are Nancy Schaeffer, Bert Ceresini, and Susie Engle.

Music Anyone?

Our fine organists, Mary R. Allwein and Stephen Wida, provide excellent accompaniment at Mass and special events.

The Schola members lead the student body in singing praise to God.

Miss Ruth Long leads our newly formed Glee Club on a "Sleigh Ride."

Our Glee Club made its first debut at the 1967 Winter Concert. Their fine performance surprised many. We congratulate them and their fine instructress, Miss Ruth Long.

Student Aides

Sister Rita Catherine and the Library Aides are always there when you need them. From Left to right: Robert Steckbeck, Joseph Everly, Linda Frattaroli, Steven Richards, Eva Hadju, Cathrie Heim, Timothy Laws, Louise Willman, Paul Kuhn, Theresa McGuire, Kathleen Devitz, Marie Conahan, Susan Bender, Joann Memmi, Sheila Weaber, Margaret Mary Carroll, Marianne Yorkoski, Linda Dulski, Mary Batz, Rita Hartman, Elizabeth Podjed, Kathleen Kelly.

Around L.C.H.S.

Seated at a familiar spot at L.C.H.S. is the newly formed Key Club. This Club was initiated by Father Overbaugh to do the odd jobs around school. They set up chairs for Mass and assemblies, clean up after special events, sell lunch checks, and many, many, miscellaneous jobs. Officers are President, Ken Batz; Secretary, Donna Bonalle; Vice-President, David Bechtold; Treasurer, Frank Uffner.

All Audio-Visual equipment is operated by these capable and efficient Audio-Visual Aides. They are standing: Michael Geraee, Richard Davison, Samual Eisenhour, Stephen Lewis, Charles Lane, John Mallon, Edward Delaney. Seated: Paul Batz, Frank Marko, Thomas Phillips, James Tellier, and Timothy Laws.

L.C.H.S.

The Lebanon Catholic High School Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Thomas E. Mann, sits proudly. They should, because they have accomplished much. Only four years old, our band is now the best in the Diocese, and is a fine marching and playing unit.

Led by Ceal Suchanek, the Lebanon Catholic Color Guard is a precise marching unit. They are Cecilia Suchanek, Susan Uhrich, Jane Faust, Mary Batz, Helen Murray, Barbara Eisenhour, Kathleen Kelly, Eva Hajdu, Rhonda Wells, and Mary Walker.

Our Majorettes in the "Red". They are Priscilla Walker, Jane Schaeffer, Colleen Reilly, Mary Ann Yorkowski, and Lynn Gabel.

Striking a familiar pose are our Majorettes. They are Jeanne Schlegel, Mary Ann Barry, Jane Gruber, Brenda Stager, and Beverly Soulliard.

Beaver Band

First Chair section leaders are Tuba--Ray Fields, French Horn--Lewis Ward, Trombone--John Macauley, Cornet--Jerome Sorcsek, Sax--Richard Zweier, Clarinet--Theresa Pete, Drums--Mary R. Allwein, Flute--Danielle Houser.

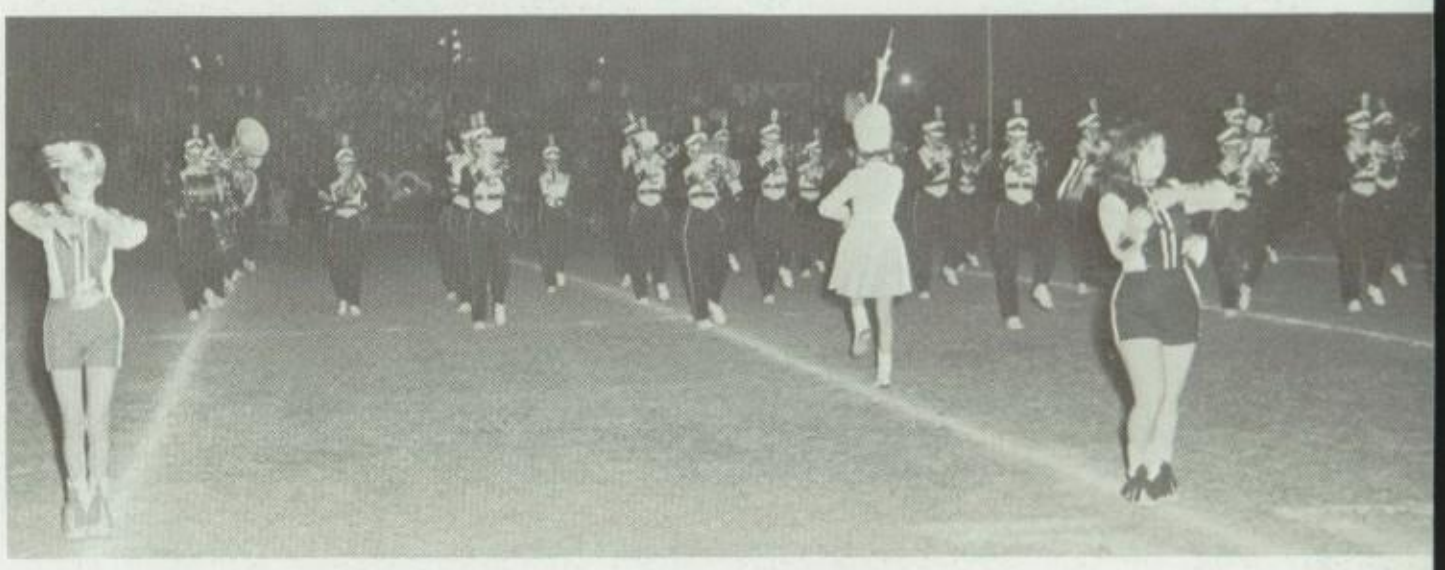
Percussion Section: Richard McConnell, Adelene O'Donnell, John Carlson, Joseph Uhrich, Michael Gates, Deborah Arnick, Carol Emerich, and Mary R. Allwin.

Lower Brass section: Dennis Lewis, Ronald Watson, Walter Van der Heijden, John Macauley, Edward Ward, Timothy Martin, Raymond Fields, and Clyde Overson.

Action!

Seventy-six trombones . . . well, would you believe five? The Beaver Band appears at all local parades as a fitting representative group of the school.

Surprise Conductor, Dennis Lewis, bows after making his twenty-seventh curtain call.



The Band struts high as Majorettes Jane Gruber and Jeanne Schlegel do their routine to "Batman."

Lebanon Catholic's own Tijuana Brass, Jerry Sorcsek, Marty Pautz, Jim Gabel, and John Macauley, lead the Band in a medley of Tijuana Brass favorites.

Professor Stachow, Spring Concert Guest Conductor, directed the Band in "First Suite in Eb". Professor Stachow is Associate Professor of Music at Lebanon Valley College.

Mr. Thomas E. Mann is very involved in a contemporary piece of music. Through his supervision, the Band has increased in quantity and quality. We hope that Mr. Mann finds success in his future years at Lebanon Catholic and that all his "Finlandias" be little ones.

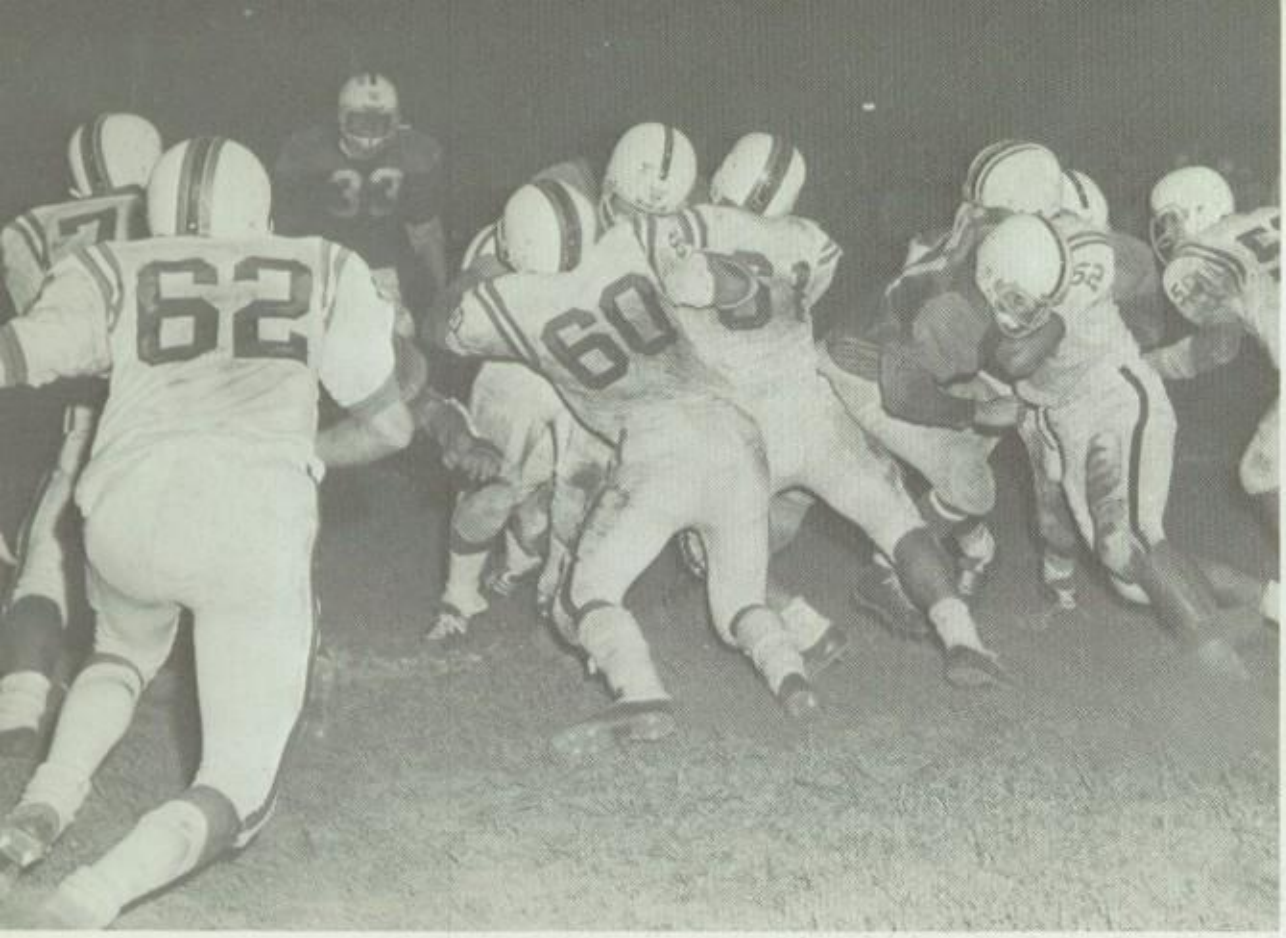
Play Hard . . .



Beaver grid-stars really hold that line. The unsung role of the linemen. Senior members Tim Fisher, Bosh Weaber, Bruce Longenecker, George Miller, and Tom Brown rush in for the kill.

Bobby Adams easily side-steps a potential Falcon Tackler. Tony Gerace readies himself for some knocking.

Coach Danz prepares to send in Senior, Bruce Longenecker with a play that should result in a Beaver touchdown.

Fight Hard . . .

Tom Willman fights for every inch he can get. Crusaders bite the dust, as Pete Starr's henchmen clear the way.

It's Dads' night at Lebanon High Stadium, as the Beavers prepare to meet another foe.

The Beaver season started with three tough wins over Cedar Crest, Delone Catholic, and a cliff-hanger with Mechanicsburg. This ran the Beaver consecutive win streak to twenty. The fourth test proved fatal to the Beavers as they dropped a one point decision to Gov. Mifflin, their first loss since Sept. of 1964. The Beavers got back to their winning ways with consecutive wins over a tough Muhlenburg foe, and a completely outclassed Pottsville squad. The Beavers then dropped two road trips to Wilson and Lourdes of Shamokin, but finished the season victoriously. The Beavers' homecoming game was a happy occasion for all with a one point verdict over Lancaster Cath. In the final game of the season, hampered by mud and rain, the Beavers tromped herbaciously over Reading Central.

Tim Reilly tries to elude tackler with a straight-arm.

Our Number 10

Our Number 10, Mike Smith, eludes Gov. Mifflin's tacklers on his way for another L.C.H.S. touchdown.

Mike Smith receives the Fred Fox Memorial Trophy as Most Valuable Senior Player of the Year from Fred Fox Jr.

Always fighting, trying for that extra yardage, Mike Smith gains valuable yardage for the Beavers.

Mike Smith rolls over another Mifflin tackler. Mike gracefully (?) runs on for another TD.

This page is hardly large enough to cover this fellow's exploits. The proverbial All-American Boy, Mike is class in every sense of the word, on or off the field. "Mike is without a doubt the best back I have ever coached," commented Coach Norbie Danz, who has had his share of good ones. He handled the quarterback spot for the Beavers this season, although better suited for halfback. Probably the most versatile gridder--or athelete for that matter--ever to perform in the county. He tallied 26 touchdowns and 24 extra points this season to complete his scholastic mark with 288 points. Not bad for a three-year career. His net rushing yardage on 188 carries totaled 1,453 yards and that includes the times spilled for losses while attempting to pass. Splitting the season between a cornerback and a deep spot on defense, Mike did everything possible of a football player short of carrying the first aid kit. Colleges seeking his services are too numerous to mention, but Notre Dame is among them.

Powder Puff

The VICTORS-Hail to thee oh Senior Stars, for you have conquered the foes of Seniority. The conquerers are front row: Kathie Thompson, Suzie Tice, "Lunga" Gross, Donna Bonalle, Lulu Horney, Betty Drinko, and Terri Vannicola. Back Row: Betsy Zweier, Barb Eisenhour, "R" Allwein, Cely Suchanek, Brenda Bomberger, Josie Arnold, Cynnie Krall, Toni Tacca, and Bert Ceresini. Coaches are Mike Reing, Timmy Fisher, Mike Smith, Bosh Weaber, and Head Coach–Tony "Papa" Gerace.

The Senior "stars", led by Donna Bonalle, and a strong defense, eeked out a 6-0 decision over the juniors. After a tight first quarter the Senior line sprung Donna Bonnalle loose for a 47 yard touchdown run. This proved to be the decisive margin of victory. In the second half the Senior defensive stalwarts rose to the occasion to "hold on" for their victory.

Donna Bonalle streaks by a stray Junior on her way for a touchdown. The Seniors won the game 6-0 because of Donna's splendid gridiron work.

Senior and Junior Co-captains meet with the officials at midfield for the toss of the coin. The officials are Timmy Fisher, John Devine, and Pete Eiben. The Junior captains are Peggy Zweier and Linda Golembewski. The Senior captains are Brenda Bomberger and Mary R. Allwein.

You should be a Rockette, Darlene. Darlene Nash is an efficient Co-Captain of the cheerleaders.

Let's Give a Cheer!

Just look at those clenched fists, Tiger. Dianne Edkin shows true school spirit at all functions of the school.

Max Karinch, smiling as always, is in a familiar pose.

Max's recipricol (How's that S.M.H.?), Cathie Farrell is a high-spirited Junior member of the Varsity Cheerleaders.

Colleen Barry really looks "windswept". I wonder why.

Raise Your Hands!

"L-E-B-A-N-O-N," says cheerleader Jackie Sonni. Jackie is active in many school organizations.

Frannie Kipp radiates a big Beaver smile.

V is for VICTORY! Marge Fala shows us the way!

"Reach the sky, VICTORY, are we in it? No, we're not! We're not in it, we're on top!!!"

Beavers on the Court

The five Beaver starters who captured the Palmyra Holiday Tournament Trophy are Paul Kuhn, Pete Eiben, Tom Brown, Dave Hartman (M.V.P.), and Andy Beattie. Because of Mr. Hasenfuss' keen coaching ability, the Beavers walked away undefeated in tournament play.

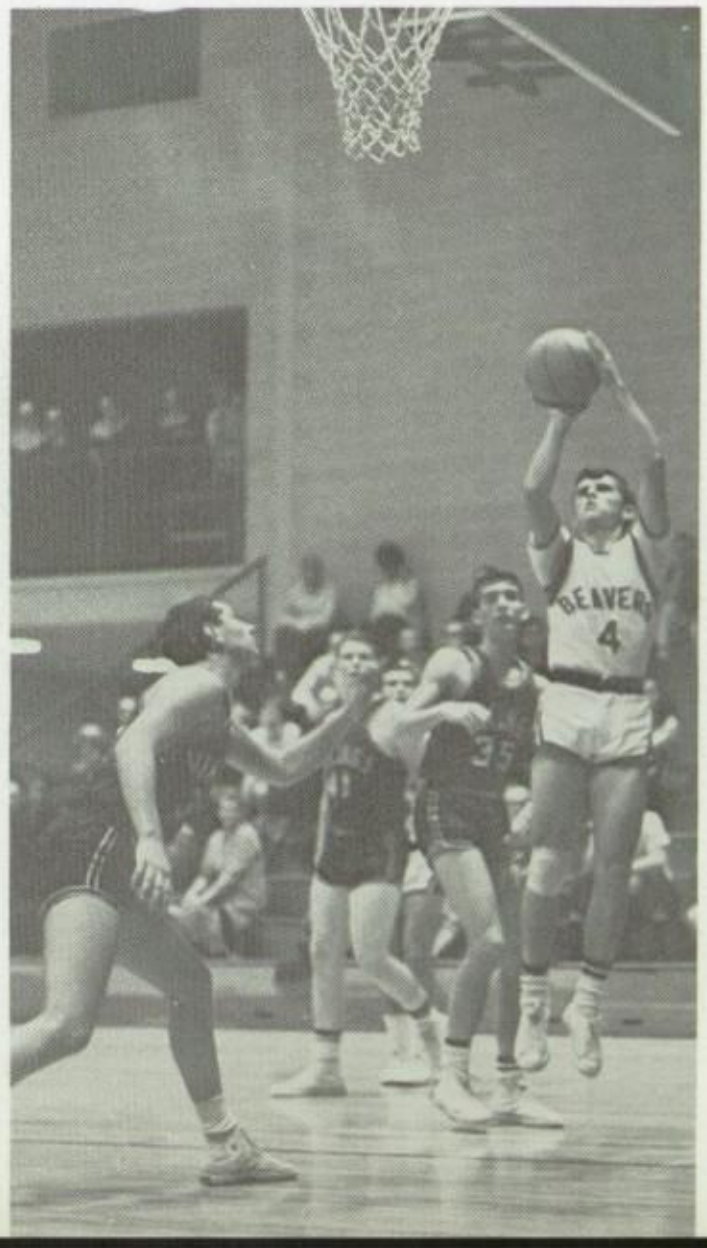
Andy Beattie appears to be saying to Tim Reilly, "C'mon Tim, it's my turn to shoot!"

John Laudeman maneuvers his way in for an easy jump shot.



Tom Brown starts the Beaver offense with a pass to Andy Beattie.

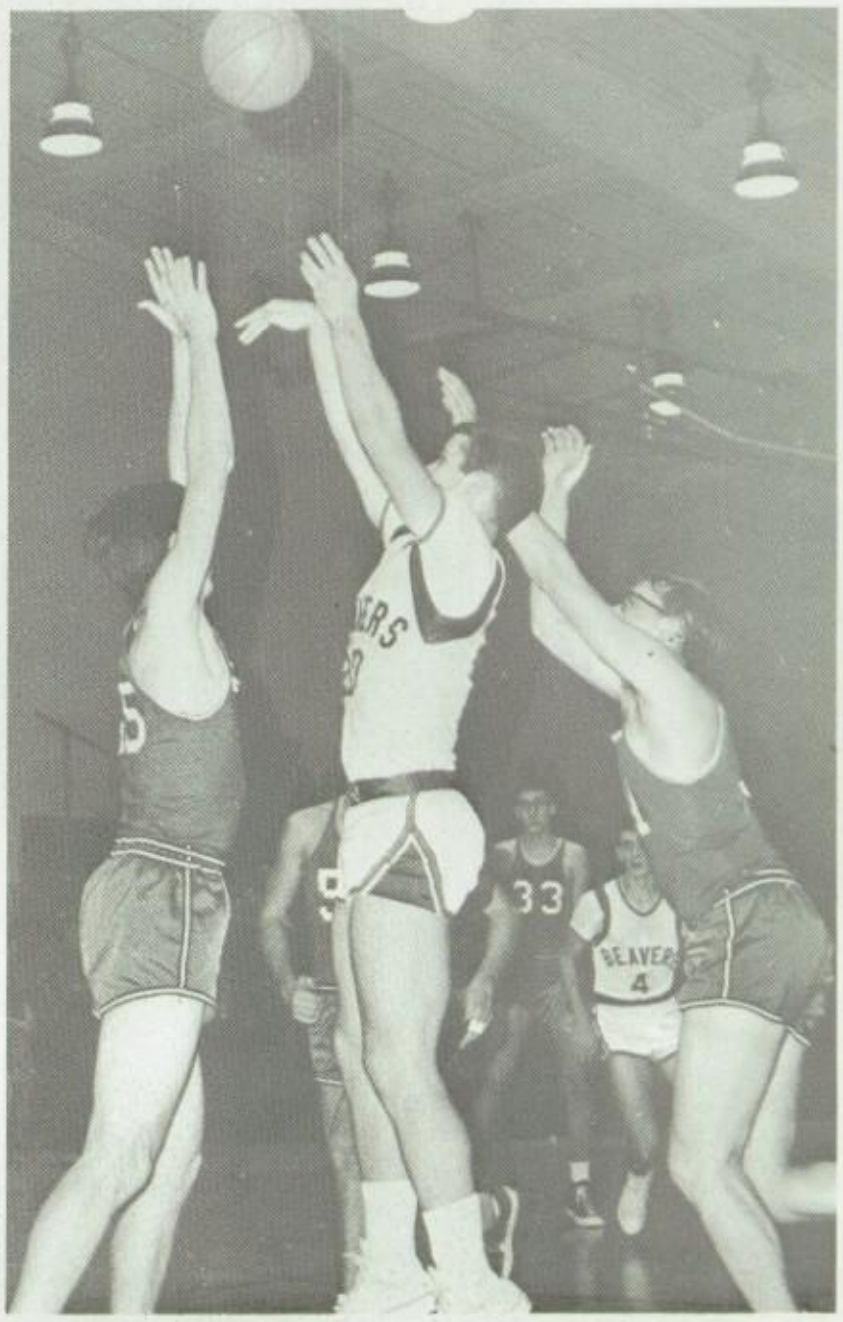
Sacrifice + Determination = Men

Dave Hartman sets a pick for Pete Eiben to drive.

Dave Hartman beats his man, and starts on a fast break.

Go-Beavers-Go!

The Beavers dazzled E.L.C.O. all night, as they did on this play.

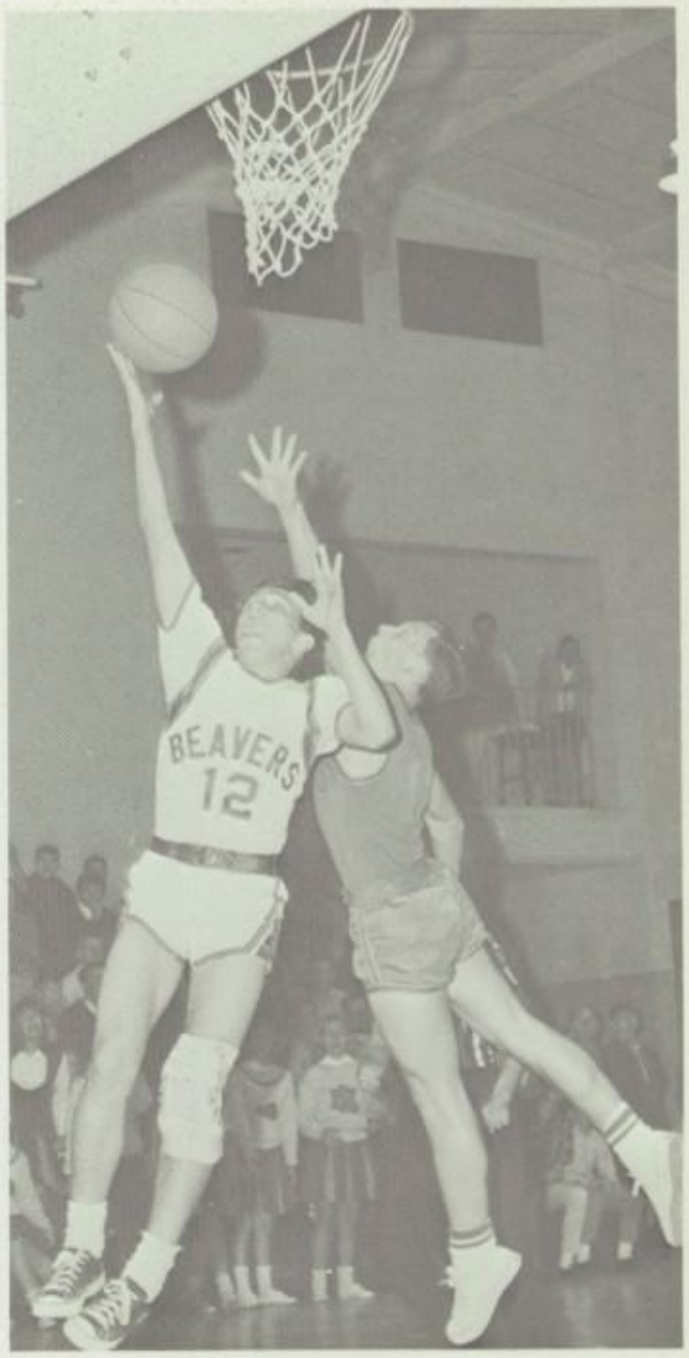


Mike Smith hampered by a recurring football injury, saw little action during basketball season.

Sink it Pete, Sink it!

Win- Beavers-Win!

Tim Reilly goes high for a rebound, as Paul Kuhn looks on.



Bill Care gets a steal and two points for the Beavers.

Get up Tim, Get up!

Into our book of memories
More vivid as years go by,
The school that brought us happiness
Lives on, and ne'er will die.
Knowledge, prudence, fortitude,
Are virtues of our school,
Her colors true,
Mary's white and blue,
Dear Alma Mater.

Never failing in spirit,
We stand for right.
On her shines heavenly light,
Lebanon Catholic High.

Her noble doctrines and her truths
Clear in our memories,
Will always keep us close to you
And guide us o'er life's seas.
Every classroom, corner, nook,
Known to her children dear,
Brings back old friends,
On whom depends
Memories of Catholic High!
